Best Bakery Con Pane

Con Pane strives to be the best artisan bread bakery in San Diego County. The bakery-cafe offers more than 20 flavors of handmade artisan bread, decadent morning pastries, inventive sandwiches, coffee and espresso drinks. Now that you do, you guys have probably figured out that this Point Loma eatery touts its many types of bread as heavily as what it puts between the slices, from a turkey Cobb sandwich with avocado to a raisin and Hazelnut Batard. There’s a three-bread platand all forms of entertainment.

Old Town San Diego, considered the birthplace of California with its roots tracing back to the first European settlements on the West Coast, is packed with historic museums, artifacts, stunning Spanish architecture and enough picturesque shops and restaurants to keep families busy all day. But how in the world do you narrow your selections with so much to choose from? Well, that’s where the Peninsula Beacon can make things a little easier for you.

Here, we present the latest edition of the Readers Choice Awards – the best-of-the-best in retail, restaurants and services for the Peninsula area and Old Town San Diego. The merchants in these bustling areas are dedicated to winning your business – and more importantly – to keeping it.

The awards served up in the following pages were chosen by our loyal readership, which we value. Some of the winners may already be your favorites. Others you might not be familiar with. But now you have the consensus of fellow readers to help you decide where to shop, dine and conduct your daily business.

Best Bar Harbor Town Pub

Harbor Town serves a simple menu of good pub grub, featuring burgers, sandwiches, tacos, salads and appetizers. For a light bite, nosh on the Ahi Poke Tostada, made with Ahi poke, wonton chips, carrots, cucumber, wasabi cream, jalapeno and cilantro; or the Grilled Ginger-Soy Chicken Wings served with dojo sauce for dipping. Although not exactly light, the BBQ Pulled Pork Nachos are worth the calories.

Best Bay View Bali Hai

There’s no escaping the Hawaiian theme at this long-time San Diego fixture; it’s everywhere from the menu to the décor, and it includes Hawaiian nachos, macadamia nut chicken, haole halibut and about a million more choices. The 50th state rules here by virtue of its cuisine, and its tiny place on the map be hanged. Meanwhile, the restaurant’s accouterments are ever-changing in deference to tiki art or Polynesian carvings of human forms. And the fact that the building sits smack on the water only enhances the flow of things. Mahalo – enjoy!

Best Beer Selection Slater's 50/50

Slater's might be known for its "Burgers by Design," but it's the restaurant's tap list that has made it a favorite of San Diegans. With more than 100 beers on tap, from Abita Purple Haze to Young's Double Chocolate Stout, and all the alphabet letters in between, there's a beer for every glass. Best-paired with Slater's beers is the "50/50" burger, but don't let its menu curtail your selection, you can create a burger with your own mish-mosh of toppings to pair it perfectly with your brew.

Best Lunch Point Loma Seafood

It began with an idea . . . Point Loma Seafoods first opened its doors to the public back in 1963. Kelly Christianson and his wife Marie began selling fish out of a small store with one small display case. Kelly set exacting standards of quality and freshness, so much so that only the finest catches were kept for sale. In time, along with their sons Jack and John, Kelly and Marie slowly built Point Loma Seafoods' reputation as more than just a fresh fish market. Soon they began smoking and processing both sport-caught fish and fish for retail sales.

Voted Best Tea Selection

Point Loma Tea

If you want to know about Point Loma Tea, you need to get to know its owner, Cheryl Graf. Cheryl is a life-long tea enthusiast, really – since childhood. Some of her earliest memories are of spending time with her Grandmothers in the Midwest having tea parties. Her Mother, as a Minister's wife, was well known for her hospitality, welcoming visitors to her home with fresh-baked goodies and tea. Cheryl's first job as a teenager was assisting the British owner of a Boarding House in Bellflower, CA provide afternoon teas for her guests, serving tea, polishing the silver, and more. As a wife and mother, she often worked in Church Hospitality and Women's Ministries, and helped organize many tea events, from a dozen participants in a home, to kid's tea and etiquette events, to hundreds of women in hotel ballrooms. In 2000, after a successful career in office administration, Cheryl had the opportunity to "retire" from that career, and follow her passion for tea and hospitality as a full-time career. And that journey over the last dozen years culminated in the opening of Point Loma Tea in Oct 2012. For Cheryl, it is all about the experience you will have when you explore the awesome specialty teas and related accessories in our store, and in your home, with your family and friends.

Come in and give us a try. Pizza napoletana is made with soft dough and takes about a minute to cook, this kind of pizza has several distinctive characteristics..... soft and foldable and can be considered "wet" by American standard and the pizza crust has blackened char spot. Making pizza napoletana requires strict process: the dough has to be prepared 24/48 hours before the use and has to be hand stretched by a skilled pizzaiolo, most of the product used are only available in the Campania region of Southern Italy, first rate ingredients are essential.

Bali Hai Restaurant

There's no escaping the Hawaiian theme at this longtime San Diego fixture, it's everywhere from the menu to the décor. Hawaiian nachos, macadamia nut chicken, haole halibut and about a million more choices. The 50th state rules here by virtue of its cuisine, and its tiny place on the map be hanged. Meanwhile, the restaurant's accouterments are ever-changing in deference to tiki art, or Polynesian carvings of human forms. Trader Joes

It all started in the '50s. Would you believe they started out as a small chain of convenience stores? It's true. Way back in 1958, they were called Pronto Markets. In '67, the founder, the original Trader Joe, changed the name to Trader Joe's. They made the stores bigger (if you can imagine), decked the walls with cedar planks and donned the crew in cool Hawaiian shirts. Most importantly, they started putting innovative, hard-to-find, great-tasting foods in the Trader Joe's name. That cut costs and saved you money. Still does.
