OB residents render retail resistance

No way, no how. That's what some Obecians are saying, unequivocally, to the prospect of a Target Express coming into their beach community.

In what could be the end of the antique mall era in OB, the Target Corp. is negotiating to acquire the 18,000-square-foot Antique Center building in the 4800 block of Newport Avenue.

A Target Express is a downsized version of the original Target store introduced by the chain across the country in a

Commercial Realtor Tony Franco of The Franco Realty Group in Pacific Beach, who has been brokering the Target deal, said he couldn't comment other than to say, "Target is doing their due diligence by responsibly reaching out to the local community and asking for input. If the public wants to submit an offer, they can send it to Info@TonyFrancoRealty.com."

From his survey of other commercial landlords in the area, Franco said: "They are all 100 percent on board with the potential of the Target transaction. However, most locals are scared to come forward and

Pipelines replacement project disrupts Point Loma roads

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

A pipelines replacement project will have the Peninsula torn up for awhile, but not to worry, the city's promising disruption from the project, whose purpose is to improve the area's overall drinking water system, will be minimal.

The project replaces two 16-inch diameter water mains installed in the 1940s and 1950s with new 16-inch polyvinyl chloride water mains. It replaces 4.4 miles of cast iron pipelines that have reached the end of their useful life. The project excludes segments of pipeline replaced by earlier City Public Utilities Department projects.

The City of San Diego is working to improve its drinking water system and the overall quality of life for residents, businesses and visitors alike. To that end, the city mandates the replacement of all aging and deteriorating cast iron pipelines.

This Harbor Drive project is part of an ongoing city improvement program to help eliminate water main breaks and improve water service.

The pipelines are located in the Midway/North Bay and Peninsula Communities Planning Areas of City Council District 2. Project pipelines serve the western most part of University Heights and the northern section of east Point Loma pressure zones; and they provide backup service to one another.

The project will replace water mains within:

- Avenida de Portugal (Locust to Willow);

- Caton Street (Evergreen St. to Pt. Loma Community Park, near Ulman St.);
- Catalina Boulevard (a portion between Hill St. and La Paloma St.);
- Evergreen Street (Caton St. to Nimitz Blvd.);
- Hugo Street (N Harbor Dr. to Locust St.);
- Locust Street (Hugo St. to Avenida de Portugal);
- Nimitz Boulevard (Rosecrans St. to N Harbor Drive);
- North Harbor Drive (Chauncey Road to Hugo St.); and
- Point Loma Avenue (Caton St.

to Catalina Boulevard).

Two Point Lomans, Joseph Holasek, a member of the Peninsula Community Planning Board, speaking on his own behalf, and Robert (Tripp) Jackson, longtime member and past president of the Point Loma Association, weighed in on the pipeline work and its community impact.

"My two cents worth is that people always complain when repairs affect them, but that they also demand that all of their infrastructure works well, all the time," said Holasek, an architect. "For example, I thought that Talbot was closed inordinately long a couple years ago when they stabilized the slope bank, but it was what it was, and it eventually reopened. There are clearly a lot of infrastructure improvements throughout Point Loma. But they'll benefit us all when completed."

"Never heard of that street (Cochran)," said Jackson, adding, "They are up Catalina passed Wilcox Street today."

Jackson noted pipeline construction crews "Had to travel through the Catalina/Canon medians that the [Point Loma Association] improved in 2011. I must thank Conrad Wear at Councilmember Zapf's office, working with the contractor on working around the medians."

In the final analysis, Jackson concluded, "Seems that the traffic flow is moving OK. They (city) have made it difficult to cut through the neighborhood to avoid the situation, of which, I'm sure, the residents are appreciative."

However, Jackson added, "Now I see pot holes coming back. Ugh."

The new PVC water mains will be installed using open trench construction methods in public streets and roadways. To avoid service interruptions and minimize traffic impacts, the project will coordinate with Cabrillo Elementary, Dana Middle, Point Loma High, High Tech High, San Diego International Airport, the U.S. Coast Guard and the San Diego Port District.

Water Operation crews will install temporary water pipes (high-lines) to provide service during water main replacements, and customers will be notified before any expected construction-related water service interruptions.

Shelter Island boat launch to close after Labor Day

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

The Shelter Island boat launch is currently operating with one lane open during a major improvement project to provide better access for boaters. After the Labor Day weekend (Sept. 1-4), it will be completely closed from Sept. 5 through the completion of construction, currently anticipated for next March.

One of the busiest boat launches in California, with an estimated 50,000 launches annually, the approximately $9.5 million improvement project was designed with extensive public outreach. It has received funding from the California Department of Boating and Waterways and the Wildlife Conservation Board.

The closure will allow the contractor to continue jetty removal operations to make room for the new concrete breakwater and walkway. Alternate boat launch facilities are available.

The improvement project has been underway since May 30. Since then, the contractor has begun the removal of the west jetty and installation of a cofferdam – a watertight enclosure that is pumped dry to permit construction of the new concrete ramp.

All new piles and concrete wall panels for the project are currently in fabrication off-site. When complete, the new and improved boat launch will be easier to navigate and include these improvements:

- An enlarged maneuvering area in the basin;
- Longer boarding floats;
- Public walking platforms with viewing areas;

- New signage and lighting; and
- Docks, public walkways and restrooms that are up to current ADA standards.

Constructed in the mid-1950s with a single-lane concrete launch ramp, Shelter Island boat launch's last major improvement was completed in the mid-1970s when the existing 10-lane boat launching ramp was constructed. The facility is used by recreational boaters from the general public, including small yachts, inboard and out-board motorboats, private fishing boats, fishing tournament boats and amphibious tour buses.

"This project recognizes that the boat launch needs to be enlarged, made more safe and more navigable and maneuverable making it easier for boats to move around within the basin once they're in the water," said Brianne Page, marketing and public relations representative for the Port District.

"It will increase the length of the boarding floats. We'll be installing a public walking platform with viewing areas. We'll also be installing more signage and better lighting, as well as bring the restrooms up to current ADA standards."

A list of alternate launch ramps in San Diego Bay and adjacent areas:

- San Diego Bay – Kayak Launch Ramp, 2869 Historic Decatur Road;
- Mission Bay – Dana Landing, 2580 Ingraham St.;
- Mission Bay – South Shores, S. Shores Park Drive;
- Mission Bay – Ski Beach Boat Launch Ramp, Ingraham Street and Vacation Road;
- Mission Bay – Santa Clara Point, 1001 Santa Clara Place.

Northern district team wins Ron Trenton Memorial Lifeguard Relays in Ocean Beach

By MATHILDE ROUSSEAU BIERREGAARD
THE BEACON

On Wednesday, Aug. 23, San Diego Fire-Rescue Lifeguard Services Division held the 64th annual Ron Trenton Memorial Lifeguard Relays in Ocean Beach and this year's winners were the northern district lifeguards from La Jolla.

The relays are an exciting and challenging competition among lifeguards that include 12 legs that demonstrate the variety of rescue techniques used in ocean rescue such as running, swimming, paddle boarding and landline rescue.

"The event is a great way of showing the public the lifeguards' lifesaving capabilities, and it is great fun for the lifeguards. It is one of the highlights of the summer," said Lifeguard chief Rick Wurts.

San Diego Fire-Rescue's Lifeguard Services Division is geographically divided into four operational areas: southern includes Ocean Beach, central includes Mission and Pacific beaches, northern includes the La Jolla beaches and the fourth area includes Mission Bay and the Boating Safety Unit.

At the event, lifeguards from the four areas compete against each other in current and traditional rescue techniques that lifeguards use.

"It is to promote esprit de corps among the lifeguards. Camaraderie and friendship among the lifeguards. It is one of the fun things we do to celebrate our profession," said Wurts.

Ron Trenton Memorial Lifeguard Relays is named after veteran lifeguard and longtime northern district team captain, Ronald B. Trenton. Trenton was lost at sea while piloting his private plane from Catalina Island to San Diego in 1997.

Ask The Trust & Estate Attorneys

Question:

You prepared a Will, Power of Attorney and Advanced Health Care Directive for me in the past. I am in the process of purchasing a home, do I need to modify my documents in any way?

Answer:

Congratulations on the purchase of your home! You will now need to create a Living Trust and hold title to your home in the Trust. In order to ensure that your property passes to your family, and to avoid estate taxes and probate, it is crucial that you put your property into a Trust. Upon creation of your Trust, a deed to your property will be recorded naming you, as Trustee of your Trust, as owner of the property. You may then give the property to whomever you choose through the Trust. You can also change the beneficiary of your Trust without changing the title on your home. I suggest any assets valued at over $10,000 be put into your Living Trust also. These assets may include bank accounts, stocks, bonds or other investments. A living trust will also provide for your minor children by establishing a children's trust for them, which will give your successor trustee the power to pay for their education, healthcare and basic living expenses until they reach a specified age over 18 and receive an outright distribution. You can keep your child's inheritance in trust for them for as long as you like. Another advantage of a living trust is that it acts as a disability plan. In the event that you become incapacitated, your successor trustee can take over your financial affairs and pay your bills. Now that you are a property owner, you will definitely need a Living Trust. Please call my office or your own attorney to schedule an appointment to draft a Living Trust for you.

Wildcats light up Pointers in home opener

By SCOTT HOPKINS | THE BEACON

The bitter memory of a Point Loma High victory in the opening round of last year's CIF playoffs may have motivated El Camino High's performance before a capacity crowd last Friday night under the Pointers' long-awaited stadium lights.

The Wildcats used flashes of domination, especially in the passing game, to inflict their own dose of bitterness as they raced, literally, to a 34-12 victory over the Pointers.

Last year, the Pointers traveled to Oceanside and came home with a 21-8 defeat by the Wildcats before defeating the same team in a thrilling 42-35 battle that ended the 'Cats' season.

During the offseason, the Wildcats added wide receiver Malachi Russell, a transfer from Orange Glen (Escondido) where he caught 87 passes for 1,742 yards and 24 touchdowns.

And while Russell wasn't cleared to play until the day before the season opener, his presence proved painful for the Pointer secondary as he caught eight passes for 222 yards and three scores.

"They came out hard," said senior Pointer running back Josh Ball, who ran for 1,142 yards last year. "Nothing can prepare you for a first game like practicing hard and I think we need to pick that up. El Camino is always a good team and they came in highly ranked. We might have been a little more focused on the (new) lights than trying to win the game."

'There was a lot of excitement with the new lights.'

MIKE HASTINGS

A freakish turn of events led to the first Wildcat score after Pointer Mathew Fa'alele broke through punt protection to block a 'Cat punt attempt from deep in their own territory. However, in his race to pick up the wobbling pigskin, he kicked it into the end zone and before he could pounce on it for a touchdown, the ball had crossed the field's end line.

Referees huddled, ruled it a touch-back and gave possession to the Wildcats on the 20-yard line, a decision that didn't sit well with the Pointers. Then a play later, slot back Wayne Steward broke past the Pointer line and couldn't be caught as he raced 74 yards for the game's first score.

The rest of the first quarter and early second quarter saw both teams unable to move the ball consistently until the Pointers put together a nice drive that featured two completions by senior quarterback Kyle Grady. But another Grady attempt was picked off by the Wildcats to end the threat.

On the following Pointer possession, the Dogs found themselves pinned deep in their own territory, sending Grady back to punt from his end zone. The resulting punt only traveled 18 yards and the Wildcats took immediate advantage as quarterback Jaden Casey hit Russell on a first-play slant pattern that consumed only six seconds and doubled the 'Cats' lead to 14-0 at the break.

The Pointers narrowed the lead to 14-6 after Grady hit JL Skinner on a beautiful 32-yard pass play that saw Skinner drag a Wildcat defender across the goal line from five yards out with just over six minutes left in the third quarter.

But the Wildcats put the game out of reach by scoring three more touchdowns before the Pointers could answer again.

First it was Zack Brown on an 11-yard run and on the next drive, Russell's second scoring catch, this time for 20 yards and a 28-6 lead after three quarters. Casey hit a streaking Russell again for a 74-yard strike in the fourth quarter to end Wildcat scoring.

The Pointers' longest play of the night came with 1:27 left to play when Grady found junior fullback Cameron Auva'a on the right sideline for a 60-yard score.

"There was a lot of excitement with the new lights," Pointer head coach

Surf contest and fair

The Revolt Summer Surf Series next competition and the inaugural

Ocean Beach Surf Fair will take place next to the OB Pier and in Veteran's Plaza on Saturday, Sept. 9 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Revolt Summer Surf Series is a non-WSL domestic surfing competition dedicated to providing a fair and balanced platform for male and female surfers (Pro/AM) to perform in their sport.

The OB Surf Fair is a surfing and beach community gathering designed to show San Diego and the thousands of daily tourists who visit Ocean Beach, that there is a vibrant community of retailers and business owners in Ocean Beach that care about their community.

Sponsors and vendors are encouraged to set up a booth offering activities, product and or services for visitors. This is a great way for the beach and surfing communities to connect directly with your company.

At the event, there will be a swap meet, live music, food, raffles and fun. For more information, contact leslie@revoltsd.com.

OB scholarships offered

Ocean Beach Scholarship Fund is awarding three $500 community service scholarships to OB residents who are attending college full time and that have completed 25-plus hours of community service in Ocean Beach in 2017. Applications are due Sept. 5. Applications are at www.OBScholarshipfund.org. Ocean Beach Scholarship Fund is a program of Ocean Beach Community Foundation.

Memorial concert for Aristotle Georgio

On Sept. 17, a memorial will be held at Winston's Beach Club from 1 to 5 p.m. in honor of Aristotle Georgio, who died on Aug. 2. Georgio was a musician who has been playing at OB venues since the '70s. He spent his career moving from band to band; he played the harmonica for a number of local groups, including BB King, Bo Diddley, and The Allman Brothers. Georgio was a well-known figure in Ocean Beach — some referred to him as the "Mayor of OB," due to his expansive personality and Southern charm.

His friend, Paul Bolton, described him as quite the character. "He was very friendly," Paul told us. "No one you could talk to would have a bad word to say about him."

Georgio's friends from the industry will attend, volunteering their time and talent to provide live music. All proceeds from tickets and T-shirt sales will go toward Blues San Diego, a nonprofit that runs a summer blues workshop for kids. Donations will go into a scholarship set up in Georgio's name, which will be used to fund the enrollment of a number of aspiring children.

Peninsula Singers invite new members

The Peninsula Singers community choir invites singers to join for the fall season. No audition is needed and singers with all levels of experience are welcome. Rehearsals are every Monday night, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., beginning Sept. 11, in the community room at Point Loma Hervey Branch Library at 3701 Voltaire St.

Performances in December will include a variety of seasonal music from old-style carols to jazz and modern arrangements of holiday music, as well as classical favorites. 'Avenue Q' musical dazzles at Ocean Beach Playhouse

By LUCIA VITI | THE BEACON

"Avenue Q" is a hilariously offbeat, adult-only, delightful musical, now showcasing at the OB Playhouse and Theatre Company. The characters – divided between flesh and felt – dazzle in this coming of age story that satirizes "all grown up."

Sidling PBS's beloved "Sesame Street," unconcealed puppeteers, puppets and human actors lament to learn that what "Sesame Street" taught us – we're the cat's meow and the world is our oyster – is a hoax. Life as latter 20s and 30-somethings is not easily launched on the sunny side of the street. The real world imposes limitations to a populace where the playing field is even. In other words, you're really not that special. Adults scramble and sacrifice, lose and learn, and rise and fall in order to fail and succeed, often on repeat.

Staying solvent in New York is not an easy task for Princeton, the show's principal character. The college graduate arrives in the world's busiest city, bright-eyed, bushy-tailed and ready for success. However, his tiny budget saddles him to the borough of Queens' Avenue Q – because Avenue's A through P are too expensive. Job hunting is tediously unsuccessful as noted by the song, "What Do You Do With A

Actors and puppets mesh in the adult musical comedy 'Avenue Q' now playing at the OB Playhouse.

B.A. In English?" followed by "It Sucks To Be Me."

But all is not that awful. "Avenue Q" is home to a colorful cast of neighbors. Kate Monster, the girl next door who secretly desires Princeton; Rod, the Republican investment banker and closeted gay; Lucy, the lovable slut donning a "what Madonna would look like chubby" costume; Trekkie, the internet entrepreneur infamous for surfing the net for pornography; Lavinia Thistlewat, the unlikeable kindergarten teacher who deserves her name; Nicky, the beloved good Samaritan; and Gary Coleman, the building's superintendent who is as Gary Coleman as Gary Coleman. Peach, Boy Bear and Girl Bear a.k.a. Bad Idea bears, complete the furry-friendly cast.

Live denizens include Brian, an unemployed wannabe comic and Christmas Eve, Brian's Japanese, double MBA, therapist fiancée. While addressing sex, alcohol and pornography, the characters struggle through issues surrounding careers, relationships and the meaning of life. Vignettes include Princeton's pursuit for employment; Kate Monster's desire to build a Monsterssori School – get it "Monsters-sori" school; Rod's search for courage to proclaim his homosexuality; Christmas Eve's rally for patients and Brian's commitment acceptance to marry his fiancé.

And no puppet show would be complete without puppet sex. Yup. Laugh out loud puppet sex.

The show's cast of characters express their secret longings in songs such as "I Wish I Could Go Back to College," "Everyone's A Little Bit Racist," "Fantasies Come Through," "There's A Fine, Fine Line," "The Money Song," "School for Monsters," "I'm Not Wearing Underwear Today," and "Schadenfreude."

The dialogue is funny. The live actors are great, the singing is super and the comedic timing is spot on. The talented ensemble delivered first-class entertainment affront a quirky – yet perfect – stage design. The puppets are amazing. Although not recommended for children – I would even caution against youthful teenagers – I highly recommend "Avenue Q" for anyone in need of an evening of humor and levity.

Tall ships and pirates at Festival of Sail

The Port of San Diego Festival of Sail, hosted by the Maritime Museum of San Diego, home to one of the world's finest collections of historic vessels, will again transform the North Embarcadero into a nautical theme park. More than 20 tall ships and other vessels from around the world will visit Sept 1-4. Festival visitors will enjoy touring the ships, marvelous food and drink from dozens of restaurant booths, a petting zoo, pirates, cannon battles on the bay, sunset cruises and shopping for one-of-a-kind items among more than 150 festival vendors.

Parade of Sail

The festival will kick off with a grand parade of sail on San Diego Bay at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 31. The parade will be led by San Salvador, a replica of Juan Cabrillo's 16th-century galleon. More than a dozen majestic windjammers will sail into San Diego's harbor in a magnificent nautical procession.

The best spots to view from shore include the Maritime Museum, Cabrillo National Monument, local restaurants and businesses on Shelter Island, Harbor Island and the North Embarcadero. Please note that the list of ships scheduled to appear in the parade is subject to change. Ships should be docked by 6 p.m. at the museum and open for visitation starting on Friday, Sept. 1 at noon.

Festival ships

The festival will include more than twenty tall ships and other extraordinary vessels from around the world. The official tall ship of California, Californian, the gaff top-sail schooner Bill of Rights, Irving and Exy Johnson, twin ships from San Pedro, and many more have been invited to attend. A complete list of the participating ships can be found at www.sdmartime.org. Please note that the list of ships scheduled to appear in the festival is subject to change.

Cannon battle

Join the crew for a cannon battle at sea and experience naval warfare during the Age of Sail! Several ships will engage in cannon battle reenactments on San Diego Bay during the festival. Individuals can purchase tickets to be on board for the experience. Tickets are $65 for adults and $40 for children 12 and under. This is not recommended for children under 5. A Festival of Sail ticket is also required. Tickets are for sale at www.sdmartime.org. Cannon battle sails will sell out, so get tickets early.

Kids zone

Petting zoo and jump house will be open Saturday, Sunday and Monday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Both are included with admission.

Cannon firings

The Museum's Shore Battery Artillery Team will also salute the ships with several rounds of fire as they pass by during the parade. The unit will demonstrate how the guns are cleaned and then will fire the 3- and 4-pound guns for a "noon salute" each day as well as firing volleys at the ships during the Cannon Battles on the Bay.

Tall ship tickets

Visitors must purchase a tall ships ticket to tour the festival ships. Each participating ship has its own unique stamp and guests can get their tickets stamped at each vessel. Tickets are $11 for adults and $9 for children (age 3-12), seniors (62 and over) and military. Tickets are for sale at www.sdmartime.org.

Singer-songwriter Sarah Rogo to hold signing show at Java Joe's

By BART MENDOZA | THE BEACON

San Diego is known as a haven for singer-songwriters, with performers coming from near and wide to be a part of the music community.

Such is the case with Sarah Rogo, who will host a special "signing show" on Sept. 2 at Java Joe's celebrating her recent signing to Los Angeles-based label, Funzalo Records. Originally from New England, few have taken the local scene by storm quite like Rogo.

A masterful songwriter, with a whiskey-tinged voice to match her slide guitar playing and a commanding stage presence, even in a community that has spawned such luminaries as Jack Tempchin, Jason Mraz, Steve Poltz and Gregory Page, Rogo is a stand out.

She arrived in San Diego on Jan. 1 2016, drawn by the same thing that lures many. "Ever since I was little, I wanted to be a surfer," she said. "I figured I would get closer to LA and closer to the surf culture I've always craved."

Rogo has been performing since she first picked up the guitar. "Technically my first performance was 'a mash up of 'Happy Birthday' and 'Amazing Grace' at my parents barbecue," she said. "But my first big performance was when I was 15 at a park amphitheater in Danbury Conn."

Though now known for her guitar skills, Rogo was initially a saxophone player, inspired by her local library. "I would wander around the music collection as a kid and discover new music," she recalled.

"That's where I found the blues. I was a saxophone player who played guitar on the side to write my songs but when I started studying at Sarah Rogo will play Java Joe's, 2611 Congress St., at 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 2.

Berklee College of Music in Boston I met my guitar heroes, Paul Rishell and Woody Mann. They opened up a whole new world for me and I've been hooked on guitar ever since."

Rogo notes the choice of Java Joe's for venue was both for its history and its vibe. "I love the new Java Joes," she enthused. "It's a great location and so comfortable. It's very conducive to listening and that's why I chose it for my label-signing celebration show." For this event Rogo will be performing solo, with special guests joining in. She will debut a full band for her performance at the Adams Avenue Street Fair on Oct. 1.

For her part, Rogo is happy with her move west. "My time in San Diego has been incredibly exceptional," she said. "There have been so many kind hearts that have supported and helped me. I have never felt more at home."

Even with so much positive happening in her career at the moment, Rogo acknowledges the music business can be tough. "Sometimes I don't know how I keep going, but my feet and fingers just keep moving and I don't look back," she said. "Usually it's the pure love of a good song and getting it out there to people. At the end of the day it's just about having fun, so I try to find ways to always keep that spark."

Next year will see Rogo continue to record and tour further afield. It's all part of why she enjoys being a musician. "I like meeting new people and going new places, I enjoy taking an essence-like feeling or message and turning it into a song," she mused. "I enjoy discovering myself through writing and performing."

Now an established West Coast resident, has surfing crossed over into her music? "You bet it does," she said. "Surfing and music are so intertwined for me. Not only is the community tight-knit, they are supportive and come out to my shows, but it's also very emotionally tied together." It's clear how much Rogo loves her new home in San Diego. "I gain so much personal strength paddling out every day," she explained. "I face my fears, I calm my mind, and I find the same spiritual beauty in both music and surfing."

Lose 20 lbs this SUMMER!

"I've been on Dr. Wong's program for 24 days and I've lost 20 pounds so far. I feel very good about it and I'm feeling progress everyday and I recommend it to anybody."

Isabelle S. — San Diego

"So far in the last 60 days, I lost 35 pounds and I even took seven days off during the holidays for eating fat foods! I expect to drop another 25 pounds in the next 30 to 60 days!"

John R. — San Diego

NO SHOTS/DRUGS

NO SURGERIES

NO EXERCISE

"I knew I wanted to make changes after I had my 2 year old and get rid of my baby fat. Dr. Wong guided me along the way and was very supportive and I've lost 23 pounds in 2 months. I've met my goals and I'm happy! I feel a lot better, healthier and I have more energy. I've noticed that I've had to get new clothes!"

Mandy C. — San Diego

"I've tried every known diet program out there but I've always gone back and gotten even larger than when I first started. I knew I needed to do something different. With Dr. Wong's program, within 2 months, I've lost a total of 38 lbs. I feel great! My goal is to lose another 25 lbs and I'm ecstatic. I want to thank Dr. Wong and his staff for their support because otherwise it would have been much more difficult."

Chris U. — Chula Vista

"After being on Dr. Wong's program for 2 months, I've lost almost 40 pounds. I was lethargic and couldn't keep up with my kids but I've found an answer to my energy problems and I wake up with energy, I feel better, I've been eating healthier and I've been more active. Thank you Dr. Wong!"

Rachel R. — San Diego

"Before I came to see Dr. Wong, I had a lot of health concerns. I had extreme knee pain, I was over-weight and I also had a lack of energy. After I had a consultation with Dr. Wong, he told me what was wrong. Everything we did involved no pain and in 8 weeks, I have lost 32 pounds without doing exercise! I am a lot more energetic and I feel like working out. I am stronger, more alert, more flexible and limber so I appreciate everything about Dr. Wong. If you're ever in need of optimal health, come see Dr. Wong because he'll make you strong!"

Rodney W. — San Diego

I started with Dr. Wong exactly 50 days ago when I decided to do something for me. I was scheduled for surgery and needed to lose 20 pounds but I'm happy to say I've lost over 30 pounds! I'm very happy and appreciative because it's been easier than before and it's been worth the money and the time.

admit they are for Target moving forward. Many of the elderly property owners especially in the area, are very excited about Target moving in."

Sentiment has also been expressed, by others, that vehement public opposition to the new Target has constituted "piling on."

Gretchen Newsom, Ocean Beach Town Council president, said that simply isn't the case.

"We invited Target into our community to see what they wanted to do, answer how a new Target might benefit the community," Newsom said. "It was an open community forum."

Newsom said the overriding community sentiment about Target came across at the public forums.

"Our community, our merchants our culture, those who responded on Facebook, social media and our website, the sentiment is loud and clear — people are opposed to Target coming in," she said.

Architect John Ambert, chair of Ocean Beach Community Planning Board, speaking as a citizen, commented, "Long story short: Target executives and the building owners, Craig and Scott, are all bullying this project forward against the general will of the community and surrounding small-business owners. Besides purchasing the building or some random act of nature, there is really nothing our community can do about it. It is extremely frustrating and truly disappointing that is has come down to this."

Ambert said he believes that "the only viable solution moving forward that I can see is the citizens of Ocean Beach working to craft a 'community rooted enterprise' investment model that pulls together $6.5 million to purchase the building."

If not a Target, what would Obecians prefer go into the old antique mall space on Newport Avenue?

"The whole gamut, everything from bowling alleys (site once was one), a new location for the library, a health and welfare center, a multitude of different ideas, rather than the second-largest retailer in the nation in our community," Newsom said.

Meanwhile, Brian Fitzgerald has started a petition drive on change.org at www.change.org/p/residents-of-ocean-beach-keep-target-out-of-ocean-beach, opposing Target's entrance into the OB market, which to date has netted 2,000-plus supporters.

Even the James Gang Co. printers in OB have been recruited by the opposition to come up with a "No Target in OB" T-shirt. No OB Target tees cost $10 and are available at the James Gang printers at 1931 Bacon St. or at the James Gang's booth during the Ocean Beach Farmers Market.

Newsom said the OB Town Council board of directors will likely take up the matter of considering a position of support — or opposition — on the proposed Target at their next board meeting in closed session Sept. 12.

Newsom added the community has vented enough already on the OB Target, and that OBTC will likely be moving on to other topics come September as well.

The Peninsula Beacon reached out to District 2 Councilmember Lorie Zapf's office about the issue. She is looking into it and has yet to take a position on Target Express in Ocean Beach.

POINTERS

Mike Hastings said, "and I think our kids played hard at the beginning. We blocked a punt and we battled. Offensively, I think we made some gains but then had penalties and first-game mistakes.

"Our kids are resilient and in the (post-game) locker room there was a strong resolve to improve. We'll clean up our mistakes and get better."

Ball looks to repeat or exceed last year's numbers as he picked up 140 tough yards on 23 carries, (6.1 average) against a physical Wildcat defense.

For the game, Grady completed seven of 19 passes for 159 yards and two scores. He was sacked four times and found himself flushed from the pocket while pursued by defenders several other times when unable to find an open receiver.

In all, the Pointers totaled 331 yards of offense in the loss. Besides Auva'a's scoring catch, Skinner caught two passes for 58 yards, Malik Moore snagged a pair for 24 yards and Ball's two grabs covered 17 yards.

Lineman Davey Folsom flattened and clearly dominated numerous Wildcats on both offense and defense.

The Dogs return to action Sept. 1, when they make the long trip to Ramona to face the Bulldogs in a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Extra points

■ El Camino head coach Jerry Ralph was suspended from coaching last week by the Oceanside School District with no explanation given to local news media, instead citing "personnel matter" confidentiality.

■ The Wildcats came into the game ranked eighth in a preseason poll. Pointer league foes Cathedral, Madison and St. Augustine were ranked three, four and five respectively. With Lincoln (ninth), the Pointers play against half of the preseason top 10.

■ The Pointer JV team (0-1) lost to El Camino 41-21. The freshman team (1-0) won a 20-14 thriller.
