City Council votes to regulate scooters

Focus on slower speeds, more rider education and public safety

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

The City Council voted unanimously in favor of new regulations for electric scooters and other shared-mobility devices instituting fees for operators, decreasing allowed speeds and designating where they can park.

Regulations the City Council approved April 23 decrease the allowable speed of dockless scooters from 15 to 8 mph in high-traffic areas with the use of geofencing technology to limit speeds. Scooters are to be banned from parking near hospitals, schools, boardwalks and near Petco Park.

Greg Block, of the mayor's office, testified scooters and similar devices are to be regulated in six ways: by being permitted, limiting their speeds, paying fees, parking in designated "corrals," indemnifying the City against liability and sharing data.

Key regulations include:

- Speed limits: In specific geofenced areas, operators will slow scooters to 8 mph. Three of the geofenced areas are pedestrian-only and operators will slow scooters to 3 mph with a push message notifying riders to leave that area.

- Geofencing will be in effect for beach-area boardwalks, Balboa Park, NTC Park, Mission Bay Park, Petco Park and the pedestrian-only locations, including North/South Embarcadero, MLK Jr. Promenade, and La Piazza della Famiglia.

- Staging: Operators will no longer be able to stage scooters and e-bikes

Surfer guilty of assault with paddleboard

By NEAL PUTNAM | THE BEACON

A surfer was found guilty on April 18 of felony assault in which another surfer was struck with a paddleboard and suffered brain injuries off Sunset Cliffs.

Jury deliberations began on April 15 in the trial of Paul Taylor Konen, 34, involving the injury to Kevin Eslinger, 56, of Point Loma, in June 2018.

Deputy District Attorney Matthew Greco described Konen as "the bully on the beach," and said on April 18, "I think justice was done today.

"It's a good day for the beach community of San Diego," said Greco. "The community will not tolerate assaultive behavior in the water."

San Diego Superior Court Judge Robert Trentacosta allowed Konen to remain free on $30,000 bond and set sentencing for May 16.

Greco said Konen could face up to seven years in state prison after being convicted of assault with a deadly weapon. Konen could also be granted probation with a lesser sentence.

Konen's attorney, Brian McCarthy, declined to comment.

Greco said Konen used a 7-foot stand up paddleboard on his 10-foot surfboard and struck Eslinger in the head.

Peninsula planners favor protected bike lane for W. Point Loma Blvd.

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

In April, Peninsula Community Planning Board overwhelmingly supported a protected bike lane for West Point Loma Boulevard.

Bolstered by a city traffic study showing available on-street parking, PCPB voted 11-3 April 18 in favor of creating a new cycle track along sections between Nimitz and Sports Arena boulevards. Cycle tracks are protected bike lanes that erect barriers – plastic posts, planters, parked cars – separating motorists from bicyclists.

Seven months ago, cyclists and some Point Loma residents were butting heads at the planning group over public fears that a new bike lane might displace too much parking and congest traffic further on the already busy east-west thoroughfare. But this time around, the bike path passed easily with little stated public opposition and the cycling community solidly behind it.

Everett Hauser of the County Department of Public Works presented on the bike-path plan. He noted it will take advantage of resurfacing required on West Point Loma Boulevard, once the Pacific Beach Pipeline South project extending into the Midway area is completed.

Hauser pointed out improving bicycle infrastructure is integral to the City’s Climate Action Plan. The CAP will be implemented, in part, by encouraging people to increasingly use mass transit and alternative transportation modes rather than cars.

“The CAP requires a 6 percent (transportation) mode share in transit-priority areas by 2020, and an 18 percent road share by 2035,” said Hauser, adding West Point Loma Boulevard qualifies being on a major bus route between Old Town and Ocean Beach.

New planners join Midway board, discuss Target signage

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

In April, Midway-Pacific Highway Community Planning Group elected new officers and heard from the local Target about plans to change the exterior and brand of its store at 3245 Sports Arena Blvd.

All group officers were re-elected to another term: Cathy Kelton as chair, Dawn Reilly as vice chair and Kurt Sullivan as secretary.

Kurt Rubenacker of Target told the group the company is going through a franchise renovation of the exteriors and existing facades of all of its San Diego stores, including a change in its signature company color scheme.

“The existing Target has a white background with red signage, and we’re changing that to a red wall with white signage,” he said, adding plans call for adding a new front entryway to the store. He said two other Targets in San Diego have been similarly remodeled.

Rubenacker said the total square footage of the Sports Arena store will not be changed. MPCPG voted unanimously to issue a letter of support for Target’s renovation plan.

CITY TO CONDUCT WAGE EQUITY STUDY

With the goal of fostering an inclusive workplace where all employees can advance and reach their highest potential, Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer on April 23 called for San Diego's first wage equity study to investigate compensation inequality and increase diversity in leadership roles within the City of San Diego governmental workforce.

San Diego will become the first major city in the country to develop an evidence-based policy and action plan to achieve pay equity. According to a survey of the top 10 largest cities, many have adopted policies aimed at closing pay gaps, but none have commissioned a data-driven, publicly-available study to identify root causes for why inequities exist and how to eliminate them.

"As someone who pursued a career in medicine, a field historically hostile to women, I know this problem all too well," said City Councilmember Jennifer Campbell. "That's why ensuring equity in our city, and at City Hall, is a primary concern for me. I'm happy to see that the mayor is taking steps to address this issue."

WALK FOR ANIMALS

On Saturday, May 4 at 7 a.m. at NTC Park at Liberty Station, San Diego Humane Society will host its annual Walk for Animals, an event that raises critical funding to give second chances to local homeless, injured, orphaned and abused animals.

Festivities will include a pancake breakfast, a two-mile walk, doggie activities, an Adoption Alley and flying disc routines by the Purina Pro Plan Performance Team. Cost is $30 for adults and $15 for children. Price will increase on the day of the event. Register at sdwalkforanimals.org.

OB WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD HAT CONTEST

On Thursday, May 9, the Ocean Beach Woman's Club is bringing back a tradition from the past: the annual Hat Contest. The free event will take place 6 p.m. at Culture Brewing, 845 Newport Ave. It is open to the public and everyone is invited to enter the contest.

There are three hat contest categories: Most Obecian, Most Original, Most Nostalgic "Ode to Mae." Hat contest voting closes at 8 p.m. with the winners announced at 8:15 p.m. There will be bragging rights and prizes for the winners. For more information, visit oceanbeachwomensclub.org.

WINE TASTING FUNDRAISER

Don't miss out on tasting more than 70 different wines from dozens of wineries on Friday, April 26 from 5 to 7 p.m. at the Jensen's office space, which is right across the street from Jensen's Foods in the Loma Plaza building. The wines being tasted will be offered at a special one day only pricing. Proceeds will go to help Meals on Wheels San Diego County. Tickets are $25 per person and can be bought in-store or jensensfoods.com/winetasting.

POINT LOMA ROTARY TO HOST BEACH CLEAN UP

Join Point Loma Rotary, the students, teachers, and parents of Warren-

Walker School, Cub Scout Troup 540, local merchants and residents of Ocean Beach in Clean the Beach Day May 4 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at Veterans Park at the corner of Abbott and Newport.

Help protect the ocean, waves and beaches by participating in this public cleanup hosted by Surfrider Foundation. Reusable bags, buckets, gloves and grabber will be available for those that do not have their own supplies. Call Robert Cenko at 619-318-9762 for information.

OB BLOOD DRIVE

The Ocean Beach Community is teaming up with the San Diego Blood Bank to host a blood drive on May 1 from 1:30 to 7 p.m. at 4840 Niagara St. Anyone 17 and older, who weighs at least 114 pounds and is in good health may be eligible to donate blood. A good meal and plenty of fluids are recommended prior to donation.

All donors must show picture identification. Donors are encouraged to schedule an appointment to donate, but walk-ins are welcome. To schedule an appointment, call 1-800-469-7322 or visit sandiegobloodbank.org.

ST. PETER'S-BY-THE-SEA PUBLIC COTTAGE CHAT

St. Peter's-by-the-Sea's current pastor, Karen Marohn, announced she would be retiring later this year. The congregation is holding a "Public Cottage Chat" on May 4 from 10 a.m. to noon at 1371 Sunset Cliffs Blvd. Light fare and drinks will be provided. For more information about the chat, visit stpetersbythesea.org.

on sidewalks in downtown. The City has identified – and is currently installing – 330 on-street dockless parking corrals throughout downtown where staging is allowed.

■ In the beach areas, operators are only permitted to stage in groups of up to four, with 40 feet in between each group. The City will identify corral locations in the beach areas and, once installed, will require their use. The City also will conduct an evaluation of locations throughout San Diego where designated parking corrals would be beneficial and, working with the City Council and communities, install more.

■ Rider parking: Operators will prohibit riders from ending a ride in specific geofenced areas, including beach area boardwalks.

■ Education: Consistent messages about local and state laws in smartphone applications will be required. As will on-device labeling about age requirements and how riding on city sidewalks is prohibited.

■ Per device fee: A per device fee of $150 annually will be assessed. A reduction of $15 per device will be offered for operators offering a qualified equity program.

■ Equity programs may include discounts, equitable distribution, credit-card free unlock or mobile-device free unlock.

GIANNI BUONOMO VOTED BEST WINERY

Gianni Buonomo, voted the best San Diego Winery, continues to revel in its time in the spotlight. The voting took place in the 2019 San Diego Magazine Reader's Poll. It was last August when this same boutique Ocean Beach winery at 4836 Newport Ave. was named Best Urban Winery in San Diego. The main thing that sets Gianni Buonomo Vintners apart from the other local wineries is the source of their grapes. Owner and winemaker Keith Rolle, who studied enology and viticulture in Washington state, brings in grapes from the Pacific Northwest and vinifies them in his beach town winery.

Gianni Buonomo Vintners is San Diego's only fully-functioning beach winery. Grapes are brought to the beach to vinify, barrel age, blend, bottle and serve. Visit GBVintners.com for more information.

BUSINESS*Warren-Walker School opens Early Learning Center

By DAVE SCHWAB | THE BEACON

Private, independent Warren-Walker School serving the Peninsula for 87 years at its main campus near Sunset Cliffs, has a new addition: an early learning center for infants to 2 1/2 years.

Convinced it's never too early to start educating, Warren-Walker's executive director Shelly Baker, said the school found the perfect spot to create Point Loma Early Learning Center.

"It's brand new," said Baker of the rehabilitated building near Liberty Station at 2905 Cadiz St. that opened April 1. "We went in and completely renovated an existing space that had been a child care center. We redid everything – new windows, flooring, paint, countertops, climate control, new playground, etc."

Baker noted the new center complements Warren-Walker's three existing campuses, which cumulatively serve 300-plus students from pre-K through eighth grade.

"Our main thing was to start as early as we can, taking them (students) as early as six weeks," Baker said. "We are using a continuity of care model, meaning our students will be taught by the same teacher the entire time. That's critical with children at this age. It's an easy way for children to grow and develop with a teacher knowing them since they were little."

Baker said Warren-Walker's Early Learning Center utilizes an indoor-outdoor environment. She added the center's teachers are "extensively trained in a year-long program on best practices" for handling children of that early age.

The new Early Learning Center targeting the Peninsula has a capacity of 58 students. "Twenty-three are enrolled now and we're taking applications," said Baker. "We're excited about this new adventure to serve the area we're in."

Pointed out Baker, "It's hard to find good-quality infant care because not many people are getting into the industry anymore because regulations are so strict."

Added Baker, "What we've created is well thought out, in renovating the building, right down to the furniture. We've created a secure, nurturing environment for children to thrive in."

Warren-Walker School debuted in 1932. Founder Nellie Warren-Walker held her first class above Sen. Kraft's drugstore at 1891 Bacon St. She offered a rigorous and varied program that fostered growth. In 1939, Warren-Walker acquired the current campus on Point Loma Avenue, built the original buildings, and moved the school there. The school has since expanded its Point Loma campus, adding a second Lower School in La Mesa, and creating a Middle School in Mission Valley.

La Playa Books and Run for Cover bookstores celebrate Independent Bookstore Day

By LUCIA VITI | THE BEACON

Calling all San Diego book lovers! On your mark, get set, crawl! Run for Cover Bookstore and La Playa Books will celebrate America's Independent Bookstore Day, April 27-April 29 as part of a book crawl collection of local bookstores.

The annual event, now in its third year, includes nine San Diego bookstores that will showcase the unique niche of the indie bookstore. Prizes, swag bags, stickers, pins, buttons, arts and crafts, author presentations, book signings, contests, and of course the best in books, will be offered to those who relish aimlessly perusing between aisles of books.

"It's time for passports to get stamped, collect cool totes and meet amazing authors," said Amy Hesselink, manager of La Playa Books at 1026 Rosecrans St. "We are excited with our giveaways and games to celebrate a weekend devoted to loving your San Diego bookstores. We love it! We meet people who are totally crazy about books from San Diego and beyond. Last year we had visitors all the way from Arizona. We even had bikers bike the entire crawl."

Run for Cover Bookstore, at 4912 Voltaire St., the newbie in the ensemble, is delighted to be a part of a community that has embraced their recent opening. According to its owner, Marianne Reiner, Ocean Beach was ready for a bookstore. Rooted in Ocean Beach as residents, Reiner is determined to be more than just a place filled with books.

"We've established relationships to offer everyone more than just a bookstore," she said. "We're making Run for Cover a community hub for inviting authors and hosting events; crafts for children, story time, poetry night, book clubs and of course a great selection of brand-new books."

"We're so excited to participate in our first book crawl," she said.

Crawlers will experience the magic behind the art of hand-selling books along with excellent customer service.

"It's more than buying a book," said Reiner. "It's about talking to customers — our neighbors — to make the community feel like something is happening for them."

Every bookstore highlights its best and brightest unique to its own brick-and-mortar edifice.

"Every bookstore offers something different to its crawling customers," said Hesselink. "We're hosting Dean Nelson, Point Loma Nazarene professor and author of 'Talk to Me,' and Jim Kempton, author of 'First We Surf, Then We Eat.'"

Run for Cover Bookstore will host a musical quartet to "make it fun," along with author signings, presentations and crafts for kids.

The bibliophile's holiday is a typically well-attended event.

"The book crawl is a giant party atmosphere, with crowds and sales better than Christmas," said Hesselink.

La Playa Books offers a unique stock of used, antiquarian, rare, and out of print books with a sprinkling of new books and gifts.

"Our mission is to keep books and literacy alive in San Diego, said Hesselink. "We're a community staple beyond the library for people to get their literary fix. We're a cozy bookstore where people walk in and chill. You can see their body energy relax. Some even ask if we are a library."

Participating stores include the Library Shop, Mysterious Galaxy, Warwick's Bookstore, Bluestocking Books, UC San Diego Bookstore, The Book Catapult, Verbatim Books, La Playa Books, and Run for Cover Bookstore.

Crawlers can pick up passports in any of the nine locations. Purchases made during the three-day event are then stamped on those passports. Five stamps earn a free logo tote bag, plus a raffle entry to win a curated gift bag. Local author and illustrator Susie Ghahremani, the event's ambassador, designed the crawl's logo and tote bag.

Those who collect nine stamps will be eligible for gift certificates to each store.

18th Point Loma Garden Walk

On Saturday, May 4 from 10 to 4, the Dana Unit of Rady Children's Hospital Auxiliary, in collaboration with the Point Loma Artists Association will present the 18th Point Loma Garden Walk.

This year's walk will be in the La Playa area of Point Loma and features eight homes and gardens. Most gardens have awe-inspiring views of San Diego Bay, the walk will showcase homes with classic/ traditional styled gardens, newer construction with outdoor living spaces galore, a shady storybook garden and even a front-yard vineyard. A bonus in the gardens will be artists demonstrations.

Net proceeds from the Garden Walk benefit Craniofacial Services at Rady Children's Hospital. The Craniofacial Clinic diagnoses and treats complex disorders of the face and skull. The goal of the program is to provide each child with a conventional appearance, healthy teeth, intact hearing, understandable speech and smooth transition into adult social functioning.

A Boutique will be held at nearby All Souls' Episcopal Church. It will feature local artisans, crafters, clothing, jewelry and food trucks. Artists from the Point Loma Association will offer a variety of mediums for purchase.

Ticket price is $30, tickets can be purchased online at: www.pointlomagardenwalk.com, local nurseries or on the day of the walk at 3111 Kellogg Street and at the Boutique location.

For more information call 619-224-6494.

SD Symphony Chamber Orchestra to hold free concert

San Diego Symphony Chamber Orchestra conducted by Martin Haunhorst will perform at a free concert Saturday, May 4 at 7 p.m. at All Souls Episcopal Church, 1475 Catalina Blvd. in Point Loma.

The event is sponsored by the Melles Classical Music Foundation. An eye doctor affiliated with UC San Diego, Melles composed one of the pieces to be played by the symphony on May 4.

Haunhorst is a concert master of German orchestras.

The ensemble lineup also includes: violinist Shannon

Fitzhenry, whose solo debut was at age 14; professional cellist Robert Kaufman who has a M.M. in cello performance from the Peabody Institute of John Hopkins University; and horn player Felix Peijnenborgh, who first studied horn at the Amsterdam Conservatory with Herman Jeurissen.

"All Souls' Episcopal Church is pleased to welcome MCMF," said The Rev. Joseph Dirbas, rector of All Souls' Episcopal Church. "Their support of young musicians fosters their God-given talents and celebrates the arts as an expression of God's love."

Characterizing his music founation as "a hobby," Melles noted he has hosted similar free concerts elsewhere in the country. This is the first one being held in Point Loma.

"It's a good venue for a concert as the church has a nice big room," said Melles, adding he's sponsored similar concerts in his native Holland for the past decade. "We work with sponsors and they were willing to support the program."

Melles added that conductor Haunhorst has been an eye patient, having had a corneal transplant in both eyes.

For more information, visit MCMFrotterdam.com.

Bite of Point Loma at Liberty Station benefits PLHS

The sixth annual Bite of Point Loma is set for Tuesday, May 14. The event begins at 5:30 p.m. in Liberty Station, where participants will check in to begin a leisurely evening stroll with stops at many of the finest restaurants to savor samples from each eatery.

Those restaurants include Solare, Tender Greens, Soda & Swine, Von's, Slater's 50/50, Fig Tree Cafe, Poke 123, Oggi's and more.

In addition, an online auction silent/auction is currently being organized with many desirable and fascinating prizes up for grabs.

To donate items for the auction, which goes live May 1, contact Jen Doud at jen\_doud@hotmail.com.

Auction items can be seen and bid upon at 32auctions.com/Bof-PLAuctionLink2019.

A limited number of tickets for the event are on sale at plhsa.org. Priced at $35 each, 100 percent of funds raised will go towards enriching the academic lives of Point Loma High School students.

With a goal of $15,000, grant requests from PLHS faculty and staff as well as campus beautification and improvements not covered in district budgets will be funded.

This is the main annual fundraiser for the school's Pointer Association, a nonprofit organization comprised of the school's parents, families, students, alumni, faculty and other community members.

Auction items already posted include reserved campus parking, prime seating at this year's graduation ceremony, beauty treatments, restaurant certificates, martial arts training, college test prep courses, core power yoga, gift baskets, golfing trips, tutoring, landscape architecture, dog day-care and more.

The organization is seeking additional similar auction surprises and big-ticket items such as surfboards, use of vacation properties, concert, sports or airline tickets.

9th annual Community Yard Sale Day May 4th

It's that time of year again for Point Loma Realtor Bob Woodard's Big PL Sale day. The longtime local Realtor has hosted what has become a renowned annual event for all of the 92106 / 92107 Peninsula and OB community. This year's date is set for SAT. May 4th so save the date. The event has grown to feature around 100 yard sales each year! "We have had some interesting items show up at these sales including things from antique furniture to cars, trucks and even boats" said Woodard. We market the event throughout the county and it brings around 10x the normal amount of buyers from far and wide. Sellers clear out unwanted items and turn them into cash at their own home. Deadline for free sign up is April 30th. To Sign up your yard sale follow the instructions on our web-site www.BIG-PLSALE.com or email us at big-plsale@gmail.com and we can add you to our Master Map of homes participating in this year's event. # Pointers softball undefeated in league under new head coach

By SCOTT HOPKINS | THE BEACON

A former Pointer athlete has returned to lead his alma mater's softball team to an undefeated league record in his first season as head coach.

Billy Hunyady, class of 1981, played baseball with David Wells and quarterbacked Bennie Edens' football team during his prep days at PLHS before six years as an assistant softball coach at San Diego Mesa College and leading several club teams.

He played with former head coach Tom Kamfonik and was coached by Kamfonik's father in youth baseball and joined the Pointer staff last year as an assistant.

Now his Pointers, without a single senior on the roster, have gone undefeated in the first round of Eastern League play while compiling a five-game winning streak during April and an overall record of 10-8.

"Our most consistent player is probably junior Gen Hope, our one returning all-league player," Hunyady said, "But we're really a young team with a lot of interchangeable parts. Most kids have played multiple positions."

Another standout is sophomore Simone Cobb who is doing something unusual — running track while also playing for the softball team under an arrangement with the track coach.

"Simone is really fast and our leadoff hitter, Hunyady noted.

"She has been on base 19 times this year, stolen 17 bases and scored 16 runs. She is probably our most likely player to draw interest from a D-I school. She's tall, fast, strong and has the physical attributes they look for."

On the mound, sophomore Cassidy Saunar has pitched 80.2 innings of the team's 106, compiling a 9-7 record, a 3.38 ERA and holding opponents to a .238 batting average while making no errors on 50 fielding chances.

In one of the team's closest league games at league-favorite Mission Bay, sophomore Valerie Remley, a transfer from High Tech High, ripped a three-run home run that provided the difference in a 7-5 win.

The dinger was Remley's team-

Pointer Simone Cobb slides into second base with a stolen base. The sophomore, who also runs track and field, has stolen 17 bases and scored 16 runs while helping her team to an undefeated league record.

leading second of the season.

Hope leads the team with a .391 batting average with Saunar and Remley close behind at .333.

Saunar's 19 hits are tops followed by Hope (18) and freshman Taylor Riley (17).

Hope leads with five doubles and Cobb has two triples while Hope and Riley share the RBI lead (12).

"We are really excited and hope to make a deep run in the playoffs this year if we get in but we really are on a two-year plan as our players gain more experience," Hunyady concluded.

Assistant coaches are Steve Vargas and Mike Hastings.

Innovative IV/ Infusion Therapy, on the Cutting Edge of Modern Medicine

Want to overcome fatigue and double your energy? I want to share information about this cutting-edge natural medicine therapy called IV/ Infusion cocktails. Many western medical physicians seem to know little about it, some have no idea. It's more of a Naturopathic treatment (still considered a pharmaceutical by the FDA) and has been practiced in Europe for decades. Yet, there is some compelling evidence for it reversing a number of chronic illnesses. IV/ Infusion therapy is used to deliver a mix of hydration, along with vital nutrients directly into your bloodstream for maximum absorption. It can help in managing body pain, common cold/ or pneumonia, adrenal fatigue, fibromyalgia, and a long list of chronic diseases. You can even use the therapy for anti-aging or just to get some bounce back in your step. Many have found these treatments to even work well as a hangover tonic. One of the most unique hallmarks of our biochemical approach is this IV therapy — delivering a broad-spectrum of vitamin, mineral, and amino acids. And, attacking health issues that have depleted clarity and balance. These therapies have been used to help you or loved ones detox from substance abuse. The Ravive Clinic can also create customized treatment programs to fulfill your specific needs.

IV therapy can address a multitude of issues that the average American struggles with, and can provide an individual with the foundation of health needed for overall and optimal wellness. Namely:

- Overall Health & Wellness Reboot- including chronic fatigue and recovering from a stubborn and prolonged sickness

- Depression, Anxiety & Mood Elevation- Delivering a huge boost to imbalanced neurotransmitters

- Natural Detox & Addiction Recovery- Helping to treat symptoms of withdrawal.

- IV Therapy for Athletic Performance/Sports- To give your body a reboot

- Nutrition & Weight Management- A quintessential treatment for detoxing & boosting metabolism.

- Acute & Chronic Illness- Replenishing the body's amino acids and antioxidant supply.

You're welcome to call Ravive and inquire to see if this therapy may be right for you. Call them at (619) 642-0477. Located in Shelter Island Village at Scott St. & Shelter Island Drive

LIBERTY STATION

Apricot Yarn & Supply in Liberty Station

Since opening in the summer of 2017, Apricot Yarn & Supply in Liberty Station (2690 Historic Decatur Rd., Suite 101) continues to grow, adding events, classes and of course more fabulous yarn from around the world (and from right here in San Diego). The local yarn shop (LYS in yarn-lovers' vernacular) has become a must-see for fiber enthusiasts of San Diego County and for visitors traveling to San Diego who are looking for a local yarn boutique. Along with supplies and books, the core product lineup for Apricot Yarn & Supply is the wide range of curated natural fiber yarns (the shop only carries animal and plant-based fibers; no artificial fibers). Next to hand-painted wool from Ireland you will spot natural-colored alpaca yarn from Seven Oaks Ranch right here in Jamul.

"We're so honored that our local knitters and crocheters have helped us build such a strong community here at the shop," says Sara Heckman, owner and Ocean Beach native. "Our meet-ups on Wednesdays and on the first Friday of every month are full of folks who share in the craft and who support each other with inspiration and ideas."

Upcoming events at Apricot Yarn & Supply

April 27, 2019: 10am-5pm:
Local Yarn Shop Day
Demonstrations, giveaways, special offers

May 3, 2019: 5pm-9pm
First Friday Open Knit & Crochet Group
