BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT : Beads of La Jolla

Beads of La Jolla Under New Ownership

Located in the quaint community of Bird Rock, Beads of La Jolla has remained a unique, artistic, and local favorite for the past seven years. Here you will not only find every style of bead design, you will find the knowledgeable staff that can help you with all your projects.

Stop by and meet the new owner, Angela Isetti. After working at the store for five years, Angela was given the opportunity to buy the business she loves - which is not too bad for a 27-year old! She and her associates offer classes to learn the art of jewelry making. The beads are of all sizes, shapes and materials: glass, semi-precious stones, wood, metal, hand-carved bone, silver, gold and everything needed to create a beautiful jewelry masterpiece. Bring in a picture or clothing that you would like a piece designed from. And don't forget, even for jewelry repairs, extensions or retractions, or redesigning an old piece, Angela is more than happy to help.

Beads of La Jolla offers classes known as a "Ladie's Night." This is a fun way get your friends together and learn to make some unique jewelry with the help of Angela. Bring drinks, appetizers, and dig in for some fun, artistic adventures, and who knows- you might just create the newest fashion fad.
