BEST OF

2022 MISSION TIMES COURIER

Congratulations to the best businesses and professionals

Every year, we ask our loyal readers to nominate their favorite restaurants, entertainment venues, boutique shops, vets, hair stylists, law offices and any other kind of business or professional they frequent for our Best of Mission Times Courier special section.

In 2022, the task of collecting ballots and delivering awards was hampered by mandatory closures as well as our own adherence to safety by pulling back our usual operation, which relies in no small part to going door-to-door at businesses. Needless to say, this was our most difficult Best of Mission Times Courier issue we ever have produced. But we got it done, finally. And although this issue was difficult, it may be one of the most important we've ever produced.

In the midst of a pandemic and the ensuing economic downturn, it is more important than ever to highlight the hard work and dedication of our local businesses whose dedication to serving the community is now more apparent than ever. Some of these businesses have been serving local residents and out-of-town shoppers and visitors for decades or more. Others have only begun to make an impact on the community, but have obviously caught the attention of local consumers by doing things right. But all of the businesses in this Best of Mission Times Courier deserve extra support from our readers so that they may survive and flourish as life comes back to some semblance of normalcy.

So, we encourage our readers to hang on to this Best of Mission Times Courier special section throughout the year as a handy guide for the next time you're looking for an optometrist, a dry cleaner, a doctor, an Italian dinner, a brew pub or even coffee with friends.

And if by chance your favorite establishments were left out this year, we encourage you to keep your eye out for next year's ballots, which will be published in our newspapers and available to fill out easily on the Mission Times Courier website in 2023.

After all, competition is part of the fun. We here at the Mission Times Courier congratulate the winners on a job well done, but also acknowledge all local businesses who are working through these times and wish them all the best of luck in 2022.

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Best New Restaurant

Rosita's Pizza & Sports Pub

A lot has changed since 1964, but Rosita's commitment to serving authentic Chicago-style pizza and traditional Italian fare isn't one of them. They recognize that some things are better done the old-fashioned way, like sourcing fresh ingredients from farms they can name. Their authentic family recipes have been passed down from generation to generation and have now made their way into homes across the country. No matter how big they grow, they stay true to their roots and make great food the priority.

D.Z. Akin's Restaurant

Thanks to you, D.Z. Akin's has become a San Diego institution. They are still a family-run business that spans three generations. They have expanded the restaurant five times in the 37-year of existence to accommodate the overwhelming demand for wholesome, high quality specialty foods. The grilled Reuben sandwiches happen to be one of their most popular dishes, out of the other 133 sandwich options, three-dozen breakfast selections—and the bakery.

San Diego Brewing Co

The original manufacturing facility known as San Diego Brewing Co opened in 1896 with much fanfare. A. E. Horton, the father of San Diego, referred to the brewery as the most important industrial enterprise since he founded the town. It was the largest manufacturing enterprise in the county. Today the new San Diego Brewing Co, hopes to carry on the tradition. Along with an assortment of fresh beers brewed on the premises, San Diego Brewing Co offers up to 50 taps of beer every day, providing a brew to satisfy each and everyone.

Fosters Freeze has been a California tradition since the mid 1940's. The Fosters story begins in 1946 when George Foster opened the first Fosters Freeze in Inglewood, Cal. He introduced the soft serve cone and a full line of soft serve desserts. These unique products became so popular that he opened a chain of restaurants. Made-to-order hamburgers, fries and other food items were added to the menu. Fosters Freeze truly could be described as California's first fast-food chain!

Best Acupuncture
We Love Acupuncture

The staff at We Love Acupuncture believe that traditional Chinese medicine is a complete system of medicine in its own right. It looks at the body as a great interconnected whole that takes into account not only the physical nature of our health, but the emotional, psychological and spiritual natures of our well-being as well. When a patient comes to them with a specific complaint they don't just attempt to remedy that particular symptom, but instead seek to adjust the system wide imbalances that lead to the eventual expression of that symptom in the first place. In treating each patient from this perspective, improvement in the chief complaint is achieved. Even more important, balance is achieved in the 'whole' person and aspects of multi-

John's Automotive Care

From working as an auto mechanic at a gas station to now owning an auto repair shop with a total of 11 bays, John has loved every minute of it. Whether he is interacting with his customers or developing a capable team of auto mechanics. John cherishes the time he spends at his shop. He listens to his team, his customers and especially to the purr of a car engine to ensure each component of his operation is firing on all cylinders. John's Automotive is an auto repair shop founded on principles of innovation, determination and heart.

Best Car Wash

Soapy Joe's

Getting your car washed at Soapy Joe's uses about 80% less water than you would use at home in your driveway. You might be thinking, "How is that even possible?" The problem with washing at home is that hoses use 14 gallons of water per minute. I'll spare you the math and just say that's a lot of water, much of it wasted. Let them professionally clean your car and save the planet.

Best Yoga Studio
Hapa Yoga
Hapa Yoga & Fitness was the first to offer in studio child care, prenatal classes, kids classes, mommy and me classes on top of the traditional yoga and fitness offerings. They quickly transitioned to offering online classes during Covid with "Ohana Online" through Namastream and outdoor classes throughout San Diego. Hapa Yoga is now open for in person classes. It is more important now than ever, to come together as a family, to rebuild, to refocus, strengthen, and come back to the mat.

Mission Trails FINANCIAL

Multi-year winner of the Best Finance Services, the idea of Mission Trails Financial began around the time a local San Carlos couple welcomed their second child. They wondered how they could help others like them balance family time with work and deliver exceptional investment service tailored to individuals and businesses alike.

With their office located across from Cowles Mountain and years of dedicated service to our neighborhood, their goal is to get you out of the rat race so you can spend more time enjoying your life. You'll appreciate the personal attention you receive from a team who knows what it's like to live and work near you. Schedule a complementary review today!
